A passer-by gave chase after the theft Monday and recovered the money, and the youth was arrested today after being identified by an off-duty police officer who spotted him leaving the scene. Linda Manion of Morrisville, Pa., who was dragged about 20 feet by the bus, was listed in guarded condition in the intensive care unit at Helene Fuld Medical Center with fractures of the pelvis, clavicle and wrist, a hospital spokesman said. The 15-year-old boy, whose name was not released because of his age, was being held in the Mercer County Youth House until a hearing Wednesday.	False		1984-03-19	TX 1-313347

Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, who died Wednesday at the age of 89, was one of the best of these. He was the child of South Carolina sharecroppers, and decided early that the life of the spirit and of the mind were complementary and suitable to his talents. Dr. Mays was ordained a Baptist minister and became dean of Howard University's School of Religion. As vice president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ, he preached throughout the country. He struggled to integrate all-white colleges but also championed predominantly black schools like Morehouse College in Atlanta. There, for 27 years, he inspired a new generation. His most prominent student was Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who referred to Dr. Mays as "my spiritual mentor and my intellectual father."	False		1984-04-06	TX 1-325659
